

Technical English I

Course number	5510
Hours per week:	2
ECTS:	2
Scheduled:	Winter term
Format:	Lecture
Examination:	Written exam, 90 minutes
Lecturer:	Karine Schubert
Objectives:	to improve English language skills in reading, writing, speaking and listening and to consolidate previously acquired knowledge of the language. to develop the ability to understand and work with specialized English texts in the field of mechatronics/electrical engineering. developing an understanding of English-speaking countries.
Contents:	familiarity with the essential specialized technical vocabulary. grammar revision reading and understanding current technical texts. general communications skills such as -greetings and introductions -writing about technical systems, processes, instructions, problem solving in the fields of communication, manufacturing, automobile technology, electronic systems introduction to cultural aspects in the English-speaking world
Prerequisites:	based on English at university entrance level
Recommended Reading:	Course book: Bonamy, David: Technical English 3, Pearson Longman ISBN: 978-1-4082-2947-7 (all books in current edition)